MEDICINAL

GOOD LIVING

Quite often results in bad health, because what is termed "good living" is usually the gratification of the palate without reference to the nutrition of the body.

When the good liver is a business man and rises from a full meal to plunge at once into work requiring mental effort the result is almost sure to be disastrous, because digestion draws upon the same nervous forces which are employed in thought. In time the stomach becomes diseased, the process of digestion and nutrition are imperfectly performed and there is a physical breakdown.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It eliminates the effects of poisonous matter which originates in the system as a consequence of imperfect digestion. It gives sound health to the whole body.

"I wish to say to the world that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has proved a great blessing to me," writes Mrs. Ellen E. Bacon, of Shutesbury, Franklin Co., Mass. "Prior to September, 1897, I had doctored for my stomach trouble for several years, going through all the medicines, but to no avail. In September, 1897, I had very sick spells and grew worse; could eat but little. I commenced to take Dr. Pierce's medicine, and in a short time I could eat and work. I have gained twenty pounds in two months."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

REFUSED TO RECEIVE SCHLEY.

There is much indignation among both republicans and democrats in the New York Legislature over the refusal of Senator Timothy E. Elsworth yesterday to allow Rear-Admiral Schley to be received in the Senate Chamber.

Admiral Schley arrived in the morning to be a guest at a dinner given at night by the Albany Legislature Republican Association. He visited the Capitol and was escorted through the building. When he reached the Senate Chamber, he went to the Lieutenant Governor's room, which is just outside the door. Lieutenant Governor Woodruff was away, and Senator Elsworth, the President pro tem of the Senate, was presiding.

Several republican and democratic Senators went to shake hands with the admiral. After an exchange of greetings Senator Armstrong, republican, of Rochester, and a few others entered the chamber and asked Senator Elsworth to receive the distinguished guest.

"No, no," said Elsworth, "I will not do that."

"But aside from any controversy," said Senator Armstrong, "Admiral Schley is an officer of high rank in the navy. We have been accustomed to receive him, Dick and Harry here, and it seems to me that to receive him here it will be the first time such a thing has been done."

"The Senate is not going to make a tool of itself," the admiral declared. "I am not going to be treated as a guest here. I am a guest here, and I am a guest here."

Admiral Schley was received in the Assembly, where he was escorted to the chair by the leaders of both parties. After making a short speech of thanks for the compliment paid him, he sat for 15 minutes beside Speaker Nixon.

The dinner of the Legislative Reporter's Association was held at the Two Eyck Hotel. Among the guests, besides Rear-Admiral Schley, were ex-Senator David B. Hill, ex-Gov. Frank S. Black and Speaker Nixon.

His Life for His Friend.—Millard Tucker, a plumber, 28 years old, probably sacrificed his life yesterday while trying to rescue Walter Ludlum, a young companion, who had broken through the ice covering a deep pond on the meadows near their homes in the vicinity of Atlantic City. The two men, with Edward Campbell, had been ducking. Ludlum was leading the party across the snow drifts, when he stepped on the ice, which collapsed beneath his weight. Campbell stood on the edge of the pond, while Tucker cautiously went down toward the struggling man, who was paddling with one hand to the side of the break and held in his other hand the gun, which he pushed up toward Tucker. Seizing the barrel, Tucker was dragging Ludlum out of the water, when the trigger caught in some object and exploded the cartridge, loaded with a double charge of smokeless powder and heavy shot. The shot perforated the flesh around the region of Tucker's heart and tore to pieces the lower part of the lung, as it took a downward course. Ludlum and Campbell helped the wounded man to a skiff, in which they dragged him over the snow for half a mile before they could call the ambulance. He died in a few hours.

SAVED HER GRANDFATHER.—Miss Mabel Hower, 18 years old, saved her aged grandfather, Rufus Hower, from perishing in a snowdrift Monday night near Middletown, N. Y. The aged man started from his farmhouse to drive three miles to the railroad station with the mail. He found the road was blocked with snow and turned his team to return to the farmhouse, when he was thrown from his sleigh. Before he could recover himself the team had left him and trotted on toward home. The snow was falling fast and piling up in drifts. Hower became so benumbed with the cold that he was unable to follow the horses. He soon sank back in the snow to a semi-torpor. When he awoke he reached the farmhouse, a mile away. Miss Mabel was the only one at home. Alarmed at seeing the team without her grandfather, the young woman quickly unloaded the oats, and turning the team about, drove back in search of the missing man. She finally discovered him half buried in the snow and almost frozen. After considerable effort the granddaughter finally succeeded in getting him out of the deep snow into the sleigh and soon had him home, where, from measures brought him back to consciousness.

A YOUNG WOMAN'S SAD FATE.—A young woman of weak intellect named Burdette, who lives near Point Pleasant, W. Va., yesterday morning left her home and crossed the Ohio river, walking over the ice in her bare feet. After reaching the Ohio side she proceeded through the snow for a distance of half a mile before being overtaken by the members of her family, who, mistaking her from the house, started out in search of her. The unfortunate woman's feet and limbs were so badly frozen that it was found necessary to amputate both of her lower limbs in order to save her life. She is in a precarious condition and will probably not survive the terrible shock.

Pneumonia Prevented.

Among the tens of thousands who have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for colds and la grippe during the past few years, to our knowledge, not a single case has resulted in pneumonia. Those, Whitfield & Co., 240 Wabash Avenue, Chicago, one of the most prominent retail druggists in that city, in speaking of this, says: "We recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for la grippe in many cases, as it not only gives prompt and complete recovery, but also counteracts any tendency of la grippe to result in pneumonia." For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

The Last Heard Of It.

"My little boy took the croup one night and soon grew so bad that he could hardly breathe all over the house," says F. D. Kennedy, Mansfield, O. "We feared he would die, but a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure quickly relieved him and he went to sleep. That's the last we heard of the croup. Now let's a cough cure like that valuable!" One Minute Cough Cure is absolutely safe and acts immediately. For coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis and all other throat and lung troubles it is a certain cure. Very pleasant to take. The little ones like it. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

ELY'S LIQUID OIL BALM is an old friend in a new form. It is prepared for the particular benefit of croupers from nasal catarrh who are used to an atomizer in spraying the diseased membranes. All the feeling and soothing properties of Cream Balm are retained in the new preparation. It does not dry up the secretion. Price, including spraying tube, 75 cents. At your druggist's or Ely Brothers, 605 Warren Street, New York, will mail it.
